

Title:	Regulations for the keepers of the spiral stairs and grocery at the Table Rock, ca. 1850
Creator:	Unknown
Dates of Material:	Ca. 1850	Record Group Number:	RG 251
Summary of Contents:	1 rough copy of regulations
Physical Description / Condition:	1 handwritten sheet of itemized charges
Administrative/ Biographical Sketch	The rough copy of the regulations was an attempt to standardize charges for tourists visiting Niagara Falls. A guided tour for visitors “under the sheet of water” cost two shillings, six pence. The regulations also include record keeping practices for recording the names of visitors who “go under the water fall” and those who do not. The regulations also include bar charges. By 1827 Thomas Barnett had built a spiral staircase to the base of the Niagara Falls and a museum and observation deck just south of Table Rock in Niagara Falls, Ont.
